The man who gets so low down in the scale of humanity as to curse a virtuous and well behaved young lady should certainly be Stone-d.

When a citizen talks "water works" to you, listen to him he is talking good sound sense and deserves your attention. It is fearful to think of going on in this slip shod fashion without any protection against fire. And all you could do in case of a fire would be to simply put your hands in your pockets and watch the flames dis-troy your property. The citizens who are talking water works are doing it after thinking over the matter and with a view of protecting your property as well as their own.

The Newspaper Man.
A newspaper man, says a contemporary, will sit up nights to write something kind about a fellow-citizen to help him along, even when he may have no personal friendship for or interest in him, and will pay out good money to put his words in print after they have been written, yet the persons benefitted seldom think of making a return, attributing the notice to their personal greatness. Ten chan-cesto one they will send out of town for their next job of work, and will take it to an exclusive job shop under the impression of making a saving, or they will take it somewhere to offset a bad debt. The newspaper man goes right along looking pleasant and saying good things about everybody and spending more time to ascertain the particulars of what Mr. John Jones has done than would be required to write an article on the source of the Nile.

The man who will stand on the street or any where else and make indecent remarks about passing ladies is a low-born, low-bred, low-down black guard, and the smell of limburger cheese and the putrid intestines of a buzzard would be fragrant to the smell of his breath.
Such a characterless scoundrel ought to have the brand of Cain, or some other brand put upon him so that he would deceive no one.

TERSE, TART AND TIMELY

Perhaps if Mrs. Helen Gougar, the female cyclone, were the Almighty for five minutes, as she recently wished to be, she would take a different view of many things.

The tailors of New York universally do not fear a reduction of wages on account of the new tariff. On the contrary, they are not only demanding an increase of wages but a reduction in hours.

Times may be hard, but they are bound to get better in a country where nearly 50 per cent of the families own their homes. No other country can even approach such a showing.

Mrs. Lease is getting worse and worse. She now wants the women and the preachers to combine for the purpose of controlling the country.

Congressman Bryan deserves promotion to the Senate for the surprise self-confidence he shows in editing a daily newspaper and becoming a candidate for the Senate at the same time.

Chauncey Depew may as well come home now. He has lunched with "Walesey," and it was cabled to the United States.

Uncle Charley Dana's latest demand is for noiseless words for the special use of professional jaw-smiths like Debs and Sovereign.

One of the very best ways to avoid the inconveniences and impositions of European travel is to stay in America.

The Jersey woman who was accused of having had numerous husbands bitterly denied the accusation and said that she had only had six husbands.

Mr. Harrison is credited with a desire to stamp New York for Mon-ton. Perhaps he wishes to atone for taking part in the dirty job that put Whitelaw Reid on the ticket with him in 92.

A negro chaplain in the army, who was appointed by President Arthur, is to be court martialled for drunkenness.

Senator Peffer has lately been talking as though he would regard the country's return to prosperity as a personal affront.

Fire-alarm Foraker still lives.
Indeed, he has accepted an invitation to make a republican speech in Chicago next month, which is bad for Chicago and bad for the republicans.

Private John Allen, of Mississippi, can almost read his title clear to a seat in the Fifty-fourth Congress, a fact which makes congratulations in order, both to Private John Allen and to the Fifty-fourth Congress.

Here's a nut for the sociologists: Suicide is so rare among uneducated negroes that it can scarcely be said to exist; with in six months two educated negroes have committed suicide, in the city of Washington, because of financial despondency.

Mr. Wanamaker is developing into a Sunday Gospel wagon preacher, but the other six days are still devoted to whooping up the bargain counter of his mercantile establishment. There is no question about his versatility; that has been long ago demonstrated.

Senator Pettigrew, of South Dakota, says of his brother republican Senator, John Sherman: "He is a back number. His mind is a garret filled with spindles and spinning-wheels and other things that were once useful, but are now out of date and of no utility whatever.

Mr. Cleveland, having had his say will now devote himself to fishing, for awhile, giving certain democratic Congressmen a chance to square themselves with their constituents, if they can.

To the Citizens.

Why can't Lawrenceburg be a city? When nature has blessed us with every natural facility that is required to build and support a good city. We are centrally located between Columbia and Florence Ala., surrounded by hundreds of acres of fertile lands, with dense forests of fine timber the hills are filled with valuable minerals, while pure crystal streams glide through every valley, all these should be utilized, manufactured either in Lawrenceburg or Lawrence county and put on the market direct from here, instead of being shipped off in their raw state to other towns which are prospering and ruining their manufactures solely from imported materials. There is only one way to prevent this and that is by getting manufactures located in our town or county, but to do this we must offer some inducement. I can think of no better inducement for Lawrenceburg to make than to put in a system of water works, just think of it we have a beautiful stream of pure water in less than a 1/2 mile from the business center of our town and over a $100,000.00 worth of property standing at the mercy of fire, with no protection whatever.
When we are in this condition, don't it look reasonable that we should strain our selves for $4000 or $5000 by direct taxation for three years, for by that time our town will increase in population to the extent that the increasing taxes will be far more than we have paid out, besides we will have a thriving little city. So citizens let's wake up on this point and try to make a united effort for our town and county.

A RESIDENT.

FAIR DATES CHANGED.

Columbia Tenn:
Owing to the fact that the Fayetteville Fair has been declared off for this year, and believing that we would be very greatly damaged by so great a lapse of time between the Fair at Murfreesboro and Columbia, the Directors have decided to move our dates to September 18-21 inclusive.

We are exceedingly sorry to be forced to make the change. We hope our friends will appreciate the necessity of our making it, and help us circulate the change, and give us their liberal patronage. We will offer many new and attractive features. Please attend.
Very respectfully,
B. S. Thomas, Sec'y.
